

Sarod Konzert mit Stephen Day (USA) und Erhard Dengl (Tabla)

Sonntag, 18:00 Uhr (Hauptbühne)

American Sarod player, songwriter & composer Stephen Day plays music inspired by his many music tours around the world.

Born in California, and raised in Canada and France, Day grew up in ashrams where he learned the art of meditation, mantra, and various forms of devotional singing including bhajan, kirtan and qawwali. He then received a scholarship to study Sarod for three years in India with legendary Sarodist Amjad Ali Khan. After India, Stephen spent time touring in Europe and America before settling in Los Angeles to continue his work as a Sarodist, songwriter and composer. His body of work now contains music for 7 films, 4 music libraries, 4 albums and hundreds of television shows including Mad Men & America's Next Top Model. His latest album, Namaste, a collection of songs and ragas about adventure, mysticism and the road less traveled, is produced by two-time Gold Disc Award winner Matt Forger (Michael Jackson, Stephen Spielberg, Paul McCartney), and Shenkar (Shakti, Peter Gabriel, voice of NBC's smash hit "Heroes"), and features musical appearances by Matt Malley (Counting Crows), Daryl Jones (Miles Davis, The Rolling Stones) and Satnam Singh (Nikka Costa, Hans Zimmer), among others.
